A Conspiracy.

Barristone, September 14.-Frederick

Baltinoni, September 1st.—Frederick L. Clayton, senior partner of the ship brokerage firm of F. L. Clayton & Co. Alfred Brotherion and George W. Brown, were to-day arrested on a charge of having conspired to defraud the insurance companies. Clayton owned the birst of T. Schlaman, of which Brotherton was captain. The brig sailed from Charleston, South Caralina, ou September 2st, 1884, with a cargo of stoves for the West Indies. On September 2st, 1884, with a cargo of stoves for the West Indies. On September 2st, 1884, with a cargo of stoves for the Caralina, ou September 2st, 1884, with a sea, and her crew picked up three days later by a passing schooner. In the early part of April, 1885, the brig was picked up and towed into Bermuda. Her cargo was insured for $20,000; all of this amount was paid to Clayton on the statement of the case by Brotherton, that he was compelled to abandon the brig because of heavy weather, and unseaworthiness of the vessel. When the Sillmos arrived at Bermuda she was examined by agents of the underwriters who found the vessel in an excellent condition, but with a number of holes below the water line, which had evidently been bored from the inside. The underwriters at once put the matter into the hands of detectives, and they pashed it with all their energy. Clayton was released on $10,000 bail, but for the others bail was refused. A singular coincidence is the fact that only this morning information was received here that the schooner F.E.M. Boxaid, of which Brotherton took command after the Sillmos was wrecked had been cast nway of Turks Island from where she was bound to Baltimore, and that the McDonaid was also owned by Clayton. The offense with when Brotherton is charged is punishable with death. Clayton has alway

He expresses a willingness to meet the "Kid" in the ring within a month for any amount to $7,000. Ross' friends say he was poorly trained for the fight, and profess a readiness to back him with the necessary amount of money.

New York, September 14.—Dominick McCaffrey and Billy O'Brien, his backer, called at the World office tobacker, called at the Nord Office Co-night and left deposits of $250° for a match of six rounds, Queensbury rules, with Paddy Ryan and $500 for a bare knuckles light with Sullivan for the championship.
